

ArtMoorHouse is always looking for outgoing and committed individuals who are passionate about art and who thrive in working within a small team.

You will help in developing exhibitions and in programming events. You will get involved in curating, budgeting, assisting with fundraising and installation of works. You will also get the chance to contribute to publicity and promotion.

If you have a strong interest in contemporary art

You are very keen in developing the work of new and emerging artists

Have excellent English & communication skills

Strong client-facing and administration skills

Microsoft Office & computer skills

Marketing & events experience

In return you will be rewarded with a vibrant and challenging working environment and great experience in PA and general event organisation.

For information please contact info@artmoorhouse.com